

A STUDY THROUGH THE BOOK OF

Titus

For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men. It instructs us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live sensible, upright, and godly lives in the present age, ...

As we await...

the blessed hope and glorious appearance of our great
God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Titus 2:11-13

Titus 1

5 The reason I left you in Crete was that you would set in order what was unfinished and appoint elders in every town, as I directed you.

6 An elder must be blameless, the husband of one wife, having children who are believers and are not open to accusation of indiscretion or insubordination.

Titus 1

7 As God's steward, an overseer must be above reproach—not self-absorbed, not quick tempered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for money.

8 Instead, he must be hospitable, a lover of good, self-controlled, upright, holy, and disciplined.

9 He must hold firmly to the trustworthy message as it was taught, so that by sound teaching he will be able to encourage others and refute those who contradict this message.

Titus 1

6 An elder must be blameless,

the husband of one wife, A one woman man

having children who are believers and are not open to accusation of indiscretion or insubordination.

Titus 1

6 An elder must be blameless,

the husband of one wife,

having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

1 Timothy 3:4 An overseer must manage his own household well and keep his children under control, with complete dignity. 5 For if someone does not know how to manage his own household, how can he care for the church of God?

Titus 1

7 As God's steward,

Hebrews 13:17 Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they watch over your souls as those who must give an account.

Titus 1

7 As God's steward, an overseer must be above reproach—

not self-absorbed,

not quick tempered,

not given to drunkenness,

not violent,

not greedy for money.

The background is a dark blue architectural drawing of a building's floor plan. It features various rooms, corridors, and structural lines. There are several technical annotations, including a circular area labeled '10M' and various other measurements and symbols. The drawing is rendered in a light blue/white color against the dark blue background.
